

Presidential Award

Awarded to an individual, without restriction as to state or country, who is deserving of very special recognition for outstanding service to music and music education. It is designed to salute and recognize an individual and is given only under special circumstances. This Award is not necessarily an annual presentation and may be awarded outside the active teaching profession.

Required supporting materials:

1. Current vitae, including educational and employment history.
2. Summary of achievements, contributions, or service to music and music education.
3. Three to five letters in support of the nomination are expected.

Note: The Nominator should collect all the information and send the complete package to the Awards Chair by the third Friday in October annually. Incomplete nominations may not be considered.
